Xenia Promotes Koch to Key Public Service Position

Xenia, Ohio (January 26, 2017) – The City of Xenia has announced the promotion of Keith Koch from Code Enforcement Officer to Public Service Supervisor. As Public Service Supervisor, Koch will oversee tasks and projects related to the maintenance, repair and construction of the City's infrastructure for parks, facilities, grounds, garage and sanitation.

Koch's promotion reflects a commitment by the City of Xenia to providing excellence in constituent and customer service. The promotion is effective immediately.

Koch served as Code Enforcement Officer in Xenia since 2013. Xenia Public Service Director and Engineer Chis Berger stated, "During Keith's tenure as Code Enforcement Officer, he performed with integrity, leadership, respect, personal and professional excellence and innovation resulting in exemplary service to the public. In our efforts to continually elevate the City's standards of excellence, we promoted Keith because he understands the value of working with others, delivering excellent customer service and the privilege it is to be a public servant."

Koch previously worked as an electrician, City of Dayton firefighter, and as a Code Enforcement Officer with the City of Kettering.
