City of Xenia Hires Accounts Receivable Manager

Xenia, Ohio (August 8, 2017) - The City of Xenia recently hired Stephanie Hall to fill the position of Accounts Receivable Manager. Hall replaces former Accounts Receivable Manager Diana Steck who retired in May.

Hall brings both customer service and management expertise to the City, having formally served in varying leadership capacities in the private accounting sector. In addition to her 15 plus years of experience in billing and accounts receivable, Hall holds both an Associate's Degree in Web Design and a Bachelor of Art's Degree in Business Management from IT&T Tech in Indianapolis, Indiana.

In her capacity as the new Accounts Receivable Manager, she will manage Xenia's Income Tax and Utility Billing Departments. As supervisor for the City's billing and collection departments, residents will have the opportunity to interact with her to handle questions and concerns.
