City Hosts 2017 “Xenia Job Fair” with Community Partners

Xenia, Ohio (October 19, 2017) - The City of Xenia will host the “2017 Xenia Job Fair”, Tuesday, October 24, 2017, from 2-5 pm at Xenia High School, 303 Kinsey Road, Xenia, Ohio. The City, in partnership with OhioMeansJobs Greene County, the Xenia Area Chamber of Commerce, Clark State Community College and Xenia Community Schools, has invited companies from different disciplines that are hiring and ready to fill open positions.

City Manager Brent Merriman stated, “We find that many employers have job openings that Xenia area residents can fill.” He added, “We have worked hard with our job fair partners this year to present an event that will not only highlight employment opportunities in our city and region, but will also include opportunities for graduating seniors.”

The 2017 Xenia Job Fair will also include a special “High School Seniors Only” mini-job fair that will be geared towards employing high school seniors.

More than forty (40) companies and exhibitors are expected to be on hand at the “2017 Xenia Job Fair,” including Airborne Maintenance and Engineering Services, NTB Trucking, Pepsi Beverage Company, Eyemart, the City of Xenia, Nuvasive Manufacturing, Assurant, First Transportation, Spectrum Brands, Twist, Inc., Toward Independence, First Diversity, Assurant and Academy Health Services, Inc. Hiring categories will range from entry level to highly skilled and professional.

The event is free and open to the public. Veterans are welcome.
