Heritage Ohio To Host Historic Tax Credit Coffee Session In Xenia

Xenia, Ohio (February 16, 2018) – Heritage Ohio officials will travel to Xenia to host a “Historic Tax Credit Coffee Session” at The Table of Contents Restaurant inside the Blue Jacket Book Store, 30 South Detroit Street, from 9 am until 10 am, Friday, February 23, 2018. Heritage Ohio created the series to introduce individuals and communities to the concept of rehabilitating older commercial buildings, using the federal and State of Ohio historic tax credits and introducing the people who administer the program on behalf of Ohio’s Development Services Agency and the State Historic Preservation Office.

Several buildings in Downtown have been awarded historic tax credits, and the coffee session will specifically feature experts speaking about the possibility of rehabilitating older buildings in Xenia by using the federal 20% and Ohio 25% historic tax credit programs.

Heritage Ohio operates a very active “Main Street Programs” throughout Ohio, and selected Xenia as one of four cities in their Western Ohio district to host a tax credit coffee session.

Xenia City Manager Brent Merriman stated, “We are pleased that Heritage Ohio chose Xenia as a site to talk about the tax credit program and we hope historic building owners will come to learn more about how these programs can help revitalize their buildings and bring them back to life.”

Interested parties can contact Joyce Barrett at Heritage Ohio (614) 258-6200, or Mary Crockett at the City of Xenia (937) 376-7286.
