Xenia Police Division Holds Swearing In Ceremony

Xenia, Ohio (November 26, 2018) The City of Xenia Police Division (XPD) recently swore-in two new police officers to bring the police division to 45 sworn positions.

Daniel Smith joined the Xenia Police Division June 3, 2018, and was sworn in November 19, 2018, after serving on the Xenia Fire Department and completing his police training courses. Smith graduated with an Associates of Applied Science in Fire Science from Columbia Southern University in 2017. He is also a recent graduate of the Ohio Peace Officer Basic Training Program at Sinclair Community College.

Ezekiel Smith joined the Xenia Police Division on June 11, 2018, and was sworn-in November 19, 2018. He is a graduate of the Sinclair Community College - Ohio Peace Officer Basic Training Program.

The swearing-in for both officers was officiated by Xenia Municipal Court Judge Michael Murry and administered by Xenia Police Chief Donald Person.
